NARRATIVE:

Razo has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18 and includes convictions for false identification to a peace officer, unlicensed driver, possession of a firearm by an ex-felon, possession of a concealable firearm, disorderly conduct, possession of controlled substance paraphernalia, possession of controlled substance and vehicle theft. Razo has served multiple state prison terms the longest a four (4) year term for possession of a firearm by an ex-felon. Razo was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on January 15, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in September 2013 after Razo absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Razo qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of a firearm by an ex-felon is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Razo is a member of the "Bell Gardens Locos". His prior criminal history, gang membership and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted.
